Behold! How little it takes for Senate Republicans "to get together." Good lesson for Democrats.

Scratch the optimist on the back and you'll find out that you have tickled a man that's got things coming his way.

If a woman doesn't look nearly as old as she is she takes all the more pleasure in letting you think she is younger than she is.

A crack shot in London claims that he can kill wasps "on the wing." We are seeking the sportsman who can are loking for the sportsman who can bring down the festive mosquito.

After all that has been said and done, President Roosevelt proposes to handle the Constitution and the rules of Webster's dictionary to suit himself.

Genuine courtier, model citizen, matchless soldier, Christian gentleman—General Robert E. Lee. Let boys read up on the life of Lee, for a pattern approved of all men.

Republican prosperity seems to have loaded down the railroads with more than they can carry. This fable teaches that where there is not a surplus of cars prosperity is bound to be a burden to somebody.

The tariff question and Senator Smoot are paired on being indifferent as to how long the Brownsville incident and other little things take up the time of the Senate.

Charged with being drunk, a Kansas City man made the excuse to the judge that he was trying to ward off a cold. The judge probably knew enough about a cold to make the man sweat for it, and accordingly sent him to "the jug" to cure him from drinking.

In behalf of the 92 members of Congress who voted against adding $2,500 more to their salaries, we wish to assure the 133 members who voted for and cinched the increase, that no hard feelings are harbored by the 92 against the 133 for running the hog over them.

With last Friday's issue the Hon. William J. Bryan's "Commoner" entered upon the seventh year of its journalistic career. "Feeling quite chipper, thank you," says Editor Bryan. For a fact, the esteemed "Commoner" is chipper. We know of no publication in this country with more incisive and well rounded editorials as are to be found in the distinguished Nebraskan's paper.

After the House of Representatives voted to increase the Congressmen's salaries fifty per cent., the Congressmen eased back into their seats and entirely neglected to increase the pay of all government employes on exactly the same grounds upon which they increased their own. The element of selfishness in it is too discernable to require the magic lantern artist to call attention to it in the picture.

IN ANNUAL SESSION

Cape [illegible] Chapter Daughters of [illegible] Have Had Prosp[illegible]r.

Library of Congress

MET YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

Now the Banner Organization in the State—All Departments Show Splendid Progress—Standing Committees Appointed.

The annual meeting of Cape Fear Chapter No. 2, United Daughters of the Confederacy, was held yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the W. L. I. Armory and was marked by a most enthusiastic attendance. Very encouraging reports were heard from all departments of the work and standing committees for the ensuing year were named. A vote of thanks was given Mr. Will Rehder for decorations kindly loaned on memorial day.

The annual report of Mrs. Cuthbert Martin, the recording secretary, gave a most interesting review of the work during the year, being her second term in that office. It showed that the interest in all things pertaining to the cause had steadfastly increased until now with a membership of 178, the Chapter is the banner one of the State. During the year 23 new members were added, two were dropped, one resigned and one was transferred. Memorial Day last 10th of May was fittingly observed, 350 laurel wreaths having been made and placed on the graves of Confederate soldiers in Oakdale and Bellevue cemeteries. January 19th was most appropriately observed as the centennial birthday of the beloved Lee, as was June 3rd, marking the second of the annual memorial services in the honor of the "Grand Old Man," August 23, the birthday of Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry was set apart as the fourth bestowal of crosses of honor, being observed the past year for the first time. October 19th, very touching memorial services were held in honor of Mrs. Jefferson Davis. All memorial work was carefully attended to and nine stones were placed during the year to mark the last resting places of the men in Gray who have passed over the river. Nine laurel wreathes were placed on the graves of veterans during the year. All worthy appeals have been responded to, donations having been made to monuments, restoration of cemeteries and memorials, coupled with a generous one to be made to an object of universal interest, the establishment of a reformatory. The amount in bank for the George Davis Memorial is $685, which amount it is hoped to increase by doubling the Chapter's yearly contribution. The museum is second to none in interest and has been greatly enriched by valued contributions during the year. The treasurer's books show no delinquents, all bills are paid and a goodly amount is in bank. George Davis Children's Chapter is in fine condition with a membership of 51. In concluding the report Mrs. Martin says:

"I beg leave to state that I have tried faithfully to perform all duties pertaining to my office and otherwise lend a helping hand. I have without exception attended every meeting, both regular and called, and memorial services held during the year, reporting and writing minutes of the same. If I have failed in aught, attribute my failure to other than not having my whole heart in the work."

The standing committees appointed are as follows:

JUDGE O. P. MEARES

Fitting Memorial to Late Distinguished Jurist Passed by Wilmington Bar at Meeting Yesterday During Recess of Court.

During the recess of Superior Court yesterday the bar of the city met and passed unanimously a very fitting memorial to the late Judge Oliver Pendleton Meares, of this city, the same being supplemented by a very touching tribute by Mr. Marsden Bellamy, who was subsequently delegated to transmit the memorial for formal entry as a part of the court proceedings this morning at 10 o'clock. Herbert McClammy, Esq., was called to the chair by Mr. Eugene S. Martin, of the committee appointed to draft the memorial and after its reading it was unanimously adopted, as follows:

"At a meeting of the members of the Wilmington Bar, held on the 6th day of December, 1906, the undersigned were appointed a committee to draft resolutions regarding the late Hon. Oliver Pendleton Meares and to present them at this meeting.

"The committee, therefore, present the following report:

"At his residence in this city on the 21st day of November, 1906, died the Hon. Oliver P. Meares at one time a member of this bar and for many years judge of the criminal court of this and other counties.

"Judge Meares was born in this city in 1828 and resided here during his life. He was admitted to the bar in 1850, and practiced his profession (except during the Confederate War, when he was in active service) until he was elected judge of the criminal court of New Hanover county, established in 1867—in which office he continued until the court was abolished in 1868, when he resumed the practice of law in this city.

"In 1877 the criminal court of New Hanover county was again created and Judge Meares elected judge of that court.

"In the discharge of the duties of that office Judge Meares acquired a high reputation for judicial ability, firmness and impartiality.

"He became a terror to evildoers, and for fear of him crime decreased in this community to such an extent that his fame spread abroad and in 1885 Mecklenburg, by its request, came under the jurisdiction of the criminal court presided over by him. And later a criminal court was created extending over the counties of New Hanover, Mecklenburg, Robeson, Vance, Edgecombe, Warren, Halifax, and Craven, and Judge Meares was appointed judge of that court and presided therein until 1897, when he resigned his office, closing a judicial career of twenty-one years, and retired to private life, residing here until his death.

"His honorable character, conduct and ability as a judge merited and received the respect and esteem of the members of the bar and all law abiding citizens here and elsewhere.

"Conservative in his disposition, independent and bold in the expression of his views, when proper occasion demanded, despising hypocrisy, deceit and guile, possessing great moral courage, grave and courteous in his manners, affectionate in his nature, and pure and honorable in his life, Judge Meares dwelt among us a Christian gentleman, a just and upright judge, faithful and fearless in the discharge of his duties, a man of high character and sterling integrity, beloved and revered by his family and relations and respected and honored by the community at large.

"The members of the bar of this city, desiring to express their sense of the great loss that has come to the profession, this community, and the State by the death of Judge Meares, do

"Resolve, That they deeply deplore the death of the Hon. Oliver Pendleton Meares by which the profession has lost a distinguished member high in public honor and esteem and a judge devoted to his duties official and private and this city and the State a citizen of pure life and exalted character, who leaves behind him an honorable record of dignified and useful activity.

"That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased by the secretary of this meeting, with the sincere sympathy of the profession.

"That these resolutions be presented to the Superior Court of New Hanover county, at its present term, with the request that they be spread upon the records of said court.

ELABORATE AFFAIR

Magnificent Success of Tea and Reception of Ministering Circle of King's Daughters for Worthy Hospital Benefit—At The Orton.

The tea and reception given yesterday afternoon and evening in the parlors of The Orton under the auspices of the Ministering Circle of the King's Daughters was altogether one of the prettiest and most elaborate affairs of its kind ever undertaken in the city. That it was a success both from an artistic and financial point of view, having been given for a most worthy hospital benefit, it goes without saying. It is estimated that more than five hundred of the leading people of the city attended and were thoroughly charmed with the pretty entertainment. The parlors and hall where dainty refreshments were served, were beautifully decorated in green and brightly lighted from numerous electrics shaded to carry out the general effect of the tea. Candy and tea tables were arranged in the hall and there was a very large patronage, a good'y sum having been realized from the free will offering at the doors.

Miss Isabel Rountree was chairman of the general committee of arrangements for the delightful affair and she was assisted by the following in charge of departments: Music, Miss Ca'der; Decorations, Mrs. Cuthbert Martin; tables, Mrs. E. VanB. Sands; Candy, Mrs. F. H. Young; Sandwiches, Mrs. J. T. James; Ice Cream, Miss Lilly Brown; Tea, Miss Whitaker, Miss Bridgers.

The receiving party consisted of Mrs. George Rountree, Mrs. George W. Kidder, Mrs. Clayton Giles, Mrs. Robert Strange, Mrs. L. Blumenthal, Mrs. John A. Arringdale, Mrs. J. M. Solky and Mrs. Jno. D. Bellamy.

The musical programme, both vocal and instrumental, enlisted the talent of some of the favorite musicians of the city and all were especially charmed with this feature.

MR. ALONZO HEWLETT DEAD.

Highly Respected Citizen of Masonboro Passed Away Yesterday.

Friends will regret to learn of the death of Mr. Alonzo Hewlett, a highly respected citizen of New Hanover and a brother of ex-Sheriff Hewlett, which occurred early yesterday morning at his home in Masonboro township after a suffering of some months with catarrh of the stomach. He had reached an advanced age and was one of the substantial men of his section of the county. He was a consistent member of the Masonboro Baptist church and of St. John's Lodge No. 1, A. F. & A. M., of this city. During the war he served the Confederacy well and was always loyal to his country. His death will be regretted by many friends all over the county.

The funeral will be conducted by Rev. J. A. Smith from Masonboro Baptist Church at 3 o'clock this afternoon and the interment will be in the churchyard there. Members of St. John's Lodge of Masons, as far as possible, are requested to attend the obsequies. There will be carriages leaving Davis' stables at 1 o'clock and members of the lodge are at liberty to use them.

Mayor's Court Yesterday.

In the Mayor's Court yesterday Contractor T. R. Threatt was again charged with failure to place a light at night on building material forming an obstruction on South Front street. Mr. Threatt was represented by A. J. Marshall, Esq., who pointed out that Mr. Threatt had given the proper orders to his employes to have the obstruction remarked but the employes had failed to do it. The Mayor stated that in matters of the kind, he could accept no excuse and the contractor was fined $10 and costs for the second offence. Julia Frank, a colored demimonde from darktown, arrested by Officer J. S. Lane, for being drunk and disorderly at Eighth and Walnut streets, was fined $10 and costs.

SEVERAL LONG TERMS

Important Jail Cases Being Cleared From Docket in New Hanover Superior Court.

SEVEN YEARS FOR RIG THIEF

Stole Horse and Buggy From Liveryman—Express Porter Given Five Years for Systematic Robbery. Grand Jury Returns Bills.

The machinery of the Superior Court dragged along rather heavily yesterday in comparison with the phenomenal record with submissions the day before. However, a number of rather important jail cases were disposed of during the day, several long terms were given and the decks are being rapidly cleared for the several capital felonies that are to follow later in the term. True bills were returned in three of these yesterday, the defendanst being Kate Fisher, the notorious colored woman who ran away from the county farm and the same night broke into the dwelling of Section Master A. T. Lamb, at Wrightsboro, some weeks ago; Sergeant Smith, the negro who was blind drunk Saturday night a week ago and stumbled into the house of Mr. N. M. Godwin, near Fourth and Swann streets, and Joe Murphy, the young Wilmington negro charged with inflicting injuries with a bar of iron in a fight at the Compress just before the holidays which subsequently caused the death of Ellis Benjamin, colored, at his home at Florence, S. C. The offences with which these defendants are charged being punishable by death, the grand jury returned the bills in a body.

Court met promptly at 9 o'clock yesterday morning and of the tales jurors summoned for the day A. P. Yopp, J. J. Darby and A. W. Allen were excused. Juror E. Alexander was called and failed. The first case disposed of was that of Jes Williamson, the negro who stole a horse and buggy from Messrs. Orrell & Alexander some time ago on pretence that it was for Mr. B. F. Keith. The negro pleaded guilty and was given seven years on the roads of the county. Matthew Sanders, colored, charged with larceny of junk, was given 12 months on the roads.

Walter Moore, the kid-glove negro porter charged with systematically robbing the office of the Southern Express Company in this city for two or three years, submitted in nine cases of larceny through his attorney, Hon. John D. Bellamy. He was given five years on the county roads in one of the cases and the others were suspended.

John Bowden, alias George Bowden, was found guilty of the larceny of junk and was given 18 months on the roads.

Mr. W. G. Sale, charged with violation of the city ordinance in allowing a bull dog to run at large, withdrew his appeal from the Mayor, paid the higher court costs and the case was remanded to the original jurisdiction.

Edward Austin, larceny of peanuts, was given 10 months on the roads.

The community will be relieved for at least 18 months of the presence of "Queen Victoria," the notorious darktown belle, who stole $29.65 from a railroad darkey near Hilton Park before Christmas. It will be recalled that the wad of greenbacks was found in the jaw of the woman by Officer L. F. Harper, after a thorough search of the ground had been made. She was given the term stated on the county farm at the trial yesterday.

Joe Doe, alias Donnelly, forfeited cash bond for his appearance to answer the charge of nuisance. John Hall, charged with shooting Mamie Garfield at a "cafe" at Second and Brunswick streets last Saturday night, was given three months on the roads.

Peter Griffin, the colored youngster, 15 years of age, who broke into the clothing store of Mr. Julius P. Taylor some time ago, leading a hundred citizens a lively chase until he jumped in the river and attempted to burrow under the wharf to make his escape, was represented by Robert Ruark, Esq., who made the plea that his father was a very respectable colored man and desired to have the boy bound out if possible. Sentence was deferred pending some arrangements to this effect. The case was submitted, the boy giggling in the prisoner's dock when his attorney referred to his client's innate desire for a new pair of pants as the only motive for crime.

Frank and Sam Farrow, white, of Masonboro, charged with an assault with a deadly weapon, pleaded guilty and judgment was suspended on payment of costs and good behavior. The grand jury failed to find a true bill against Isley Farrow, similarly charged.

Juries were out after the recess of court in cases of Dunstan Henderson, charged with carrying a concealed weapon, and Lizzie Carter, charged with receiving stolen goods from the store of Noble Milton, colored, on MacRae street. Henderson was defended by B. G. Empie, Esq., and the Carter woman by Herbert McClammy.

At 7 o'clock the jury in the case of

ROOSEVELT'S LUCK.

The evident motive of the original Foraker resolution for the investigation of the shooting up of Brownsville by the negro troops was to call in question the constitutional right of President Roosevelt to dismiss a battalion of troops without their day in court. Tillman evidently sided with him on that ground, for the South Carolina Senator admitted that the negro troops were responsible for the "shooting up." However, on Monday Foraker secured the passage of his substitute, which only calls for an inquiry into the facts of the "shooting up" and in no way calls in question the President's constitutional authority to dismiss in the event that the inquiry develops the facts to warrant the dismissal of the troops. To a man up a tree, the picture below shows Tillman deserted and standing by himself in contending for what Foraker started out to do but fluked.

There isn't any harm in the Foraker substitute. It will bring out the evidence already in hand. The President doubtless took advantage of the amendment of Senator Blackburn to whip the opposition in his own party. Lucky Roosevelt! The Democrats (Southern ones) had better nursed their chins, kept out of it and let the Republicans fight out their own family row.

The Foraker resolution surely did serve the purpose of getting Democrats to saying mean things to each other and in the "rantangle" the Republicans got out of it a harmony circle in their own ranks. It will be especially noticed that none of the Republican Senators abused their errant confrere from Ohio.

Anyhow, the Blackburn amendment to Foraker's Brownsville resolution drew the fangs out of the Foraker motive. Foraker was driven to cover and he nimbly took to it under the pretense of harmony in his party ranks. When we get in a hole we are liable to seize any kind of an old rope that is dangling around where we can get hold of it to pull ourselves out.

This is an interesting view of the situation as given Tuesday night from Washington by the correspondent of the Charlotte Observer:

"Tonight the United States Senate leadership is happy and contented, while the Senate Democrats are rather doleful and unhappy. The superb Aldrich discipline has served once more to extract the Republicans from a most precarious situation, superinduced by this Brownsville business, which threatened to disrupt the party. President Roosevelt had let it be understood that he would regard the act of the Republicans who voted against the Blackburn resolution recognizing his authority to discharge the negro battalion, not only as a rebuke to him in this immediate matter but that he would feel warranted in concluding that such Republicans were hoping to embarrass him in his efforts to curb the trusts and corporations. As many Senators declined to view the situation in this light it will be seen that a crisis was faced by the party.

"Correspondingly great, therefore, was the rejoicing in the Republican camp when it was announced that a way to harmony had been found through a resolution introduced by Senator Foraker, which does not raise the question of the legality or justice of the President's action in discharging the negros. Not only did the Republicans heave a sigh of relief when they were pulled out of this admittedly deep hole, but they had the pleasure of hearing the Democrats, who have for two days been rejoicing at the evident discomfiture of their opponents say mean things about one another."

The question is, what have the Democrats gotten out of their row? The old man and his old woman joined in against them, as usual.

GOOD ROADS AN INVESTMENT.

A dispatch from Asheville on Tuesday announces that the people of that city and Buncombe county will vote on the question of issuing $250,000 in bonds for the macadamizing of the roads of the county. The election will be held on Thursday, February 21, and during the thirty days between this and the day of the special election the Good Roads Association and others interested in the question of roads will wage an active campaign to carry the election in favor of the bonds.

The election was called in pursuance of a written request filed January 7th, with the Board of County Commissioners and was a result of the efforts by the Buncombe Good Roads Association. An association like that is a good thing to have, and it remains for the Buncombe people to back it up in the election to be held next month.

The people of North Carolina are learning that an expenditure for good roads from the country to the towns is a good investment for the whole county. It develops the resources of the county as nothing else will in so great a measure. The people's money cannot be put to better use, with the certainty to get back satisfactory returns.

NORTH CAROLINA SOCIETY OF BALTIMORE.

The splendid city of Baltimore is full of North Carolinians and many of them are among the most successful and prominent men of the Monumental City. Mr. John Wilbur Jenkins, the well known newspaper man, is president of the North Carolina Society of Baltimore, and it is interesting to observe that he announces that the society will give its banquet at the Hotel Rennert, January 25. The speakers will be Senators Overman and Tillman, Congressman Claude Kitchin, Cardinal Gibbons, Governor Warfield, Mayor Timanus, Dr. Charles G. Hill and President Jenkins.

We claim Cardinal Gibbons as a North Carolinian, for he resided in this State many years. He served the Catholic church at Raleigh and for many years was pastor of St. Thomas' Pro-Cathedral in Wilmington. The fact is, he is a Wilmingtonian and many are the devoted personal friends he has in our city.

—When Japan builds a few more cotton mills she will be as reluctant to go to war with the United States as Great Britain is.—Atlanta Journal.

—The Shah of Persia left 800 widows. It falls to the lot of a few men to infuse so much new life into society.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

—Whiskey and work fell out ages ago when work found whiskey to be a liar. Noah drank of the wine because it told him it would help him in his work. It laid him in his tent instead. Since then the two have been incompatible, although whiskey still tells the same old lie that it can help work.—Detroit News.

—The Nashville American is not quite correct when it says that the three leading peanut states are Georgia, Tennessee and Virginia. In considering Georgia our contemporary possibly confused "gophers" with "goobers," which are quite different things. It is true that Georgia is sometimes quite productive of peanut politics, but when it comes to the delightful peanut, groundnut, pinder, groundpea, goober, or by whatever of the dozen other local names it may be known, we have to take off our hat to North Carolina first, then Virginia. In Scotch, tar and goobers, North Carolina tops the column.—Savannah News.

"I suppose you write for posterity?" observed the visitor to the scribe with bulging brow. "Me? Not on your life," frankly responded the person addressed. "Ever notice any checks being signed by posterity?"—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

—"Juggins is in a terrific state of nervous alcoholism," said one unfeeling friend. "Yes," answered the other. "He always used to be shaking for the drinks. Now he's drinking for the shakes."—Washington Star.

—"You are in favor of giving new members of Congress more opportunities to make speeches?" "Certainly," answered Senator Sorghum; "the sooner a young man in politics gets over this idea of telling all he knows the better it will be for everybody."—Washington Star.

—"But," said the man who considered himself smart, "when your wife starts talking on an embarrassing subject, why don't you change the subject?" "You don't know my wife," replied Peckham. "She'd simply exhaust the new subject, and then take up the old one where she left off."—Philadelphia Press.

NATURE SPARES

The Stricken Rose From Grief.

What a fortunate provision of nature it is, that deprives the rose of mental suffering; for how poignant would be its grief to discover, in the height of its blooming glory, that a canker fed at its heart, and that its beauty and fragrance were doomed forever. Nature always spares the suffering; she is a veritable store-house of pleasing rewards, for those who seek her aid. In the years gone by falling hair and grayness have cast a gloom over the lives of thousands of young women, but thanks to the investigations of scientists the true cause of hair destruction is now known to be a germ or parasite that burrows into the hair follicles. Newbro's Herpicide absolutely destroys this germ, thus permitting the hair to grow as nature intended. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

A Marine Wandering Jew

(Original.)

Since steam has largely taken the place of sail on the ocean I doubt if the sailor's yarn is what it was fifty years ago, when the Black Ball line of clipper ships sped between the occident and the orient. In my younger days—I was but a lad—I sailed before the mast in the Dreadnaught. Among our crew was Seth Hawkins, an old salt of forty. We considered him a Methuselah, a tall, thin man with a profusion of little red curls. He was very religious, observing all the commandments scrupulously except the ninth, "Thou shalt not bear false witness," and in this he sinned only in spinning yarns, which he always vowed were real happenings. One starlight night on the forecastle while we were lounging about the capstan he gave us the following:

"You've all heard a lot about Judas Iscariot, who was cursed with havin' to live forever and wanderin' all over the world, at one time bein' seen in Egypt, another in France, and so on, always leavin' a trail of misfortune in his wake. But I don't believe any of you has ever hearn about his sailin' the seas. There's no sense in this, for how could he have got to America, where he's turned up often, unless he crossed an ocean? Leastaways I've seen him myself, and on the water too.

"I first shipped on the Mark Matthews on a voyage around the Horn to take in hides on the west coast of South America. We was layin' in the doldrums one evenin' just before four bells. A thick fog was all about us, and we couldn't see a cable's length. All of a suddent I heered a bell. It struck four times. As soon as it stopped our bell struck too. Then the fog thinned a little, and just about half the ship's length from us was the oddest lookin' craft I ever clapped eyes on. She was awful high in the poop, low in the waist and had a head on her bow like that of a sea sarpent. She had two masts like a schooner, and the sails was hung on 'em like they put 'em on Chinese junks. Of course they hung limp like ourn.

"She was head-on, and the fog didn't let us see abaft the fo'mast. On the forecastle stood the figur' of an old man. I couldn't tell you how old he looked, but there was somethin' about him that reminded me of a people long passed away. He was a Jew and the Jewiest lookin' Jew I ever see. He was wrapped in a cloak that looked like a monk's frock. The melancholy way he stared out o' them blinkers o' his'n was enough to send a cur yelpin' to his kennel. They was like the eyes of a sick man as hadn't slept durin' a thousand year voyage. There wasn't a bit o' color in his cheeks unless you call the leathery look o' the hides we've got below color, and it seemed as if I could see right through his ghastly lips to the few teeth that was left in his jaws. He hadn't any hat on, and I wasn't near enough to see just what his hair was like, except that he had mighty little. But somethin' was a-movin' on his skull that looked like worms. Whether it was worms or hair I couldn't see, but it must 'a' been worms, for there wasn't the ghost of a breeze to move even the finest hairs. He stood there lookin' at us without any interest in them melancholy eyes o' his'n, and the only motion he made was with his skinny hands, pourin' some silver coins from one hand to t'other. Every oncet in awhile he'd make as if to throw the silver away, but he couldn't, and every time he tried and failed his face would take on an expression of awful remorse.

"While I was lookin' at him the two ships was so slowly driftin' apart that nobody could see 'em move. The other craft was gettin' in our stern. The Jew's blinkers was movin' about, never restin' on anything for more'n half a second till suddenly they struck our stern. Then there was the worst fright come into 'em I ever see on any man's face, not even a mutineer I once saw hung when he caught sight o' the noose danglin' from the yardarm.

"What did he see? Didn't I tell you our ship was the Mark Matthews? The name, o' course, was on the stern. Some o' the letters was faded, and the 's' in Matthews was pretty nigh gone. What the Jew saw was the names o' two o' the apostles, Mark and Matthew.

"Then for the first time it struck me who he was. He was the wanderin' Jew. As soon as he saw the names o' them two old friends o' his'n he was throwed on his beam ends. You see, he was one o' the twelve in good and regular standin' till he betrayed his master for them thirty pieces o' silver. To be brought face to face with two of the disciples after a couple o' thousand years' wanderin' must 'a' brought back onpleasant remembrances.

"By this time I felt so bad for the poor old sinner that I wanted to give him somethin' to warm him up. I ran below, got some grog in a can and ran back, expectin' to swing it over to the Jew at the end of a rope. But when I got on deck the strange lookin' craft had disappeared in the fog.

"But where she'd drifted to was a puzzler, for within ten minutes the fog lifted, we could sweep the horizon, and there wasn't a sail to be seen.

"Within an hour it come on to blow out o' the sow'west. That was the gale when I was wrecked, the Mark Matthews goin' to the bottom and the crew bein' picked up half dead by a whaler."

Dandelion

a simple Remedy for liver trouble and biliousness

The liver is a wonderful organ, always at work filtering, purifying and manufacturing ingredients necessary to life. It is the central laboratory of the body. It plays the part of a natural poison adtidote. The poison contained in the decomposing food and the waste of the body are arrested by it and rendered harmless. The liver is the seat of manufacture of bile, a fluid that keeps sweet the intestines and aids to digest food. Healthy bile is an antiseptic and when deficient or absent the contents of the bowels become putrid and full of poisonous matter. You can always keep your liver in a healthy condition by using Dr. Edward's Compound Dandelion Tablets or Pills. They act upon the liver and produce a healthy flow of bile.

Both Tablets and Pills sold by all druggists, price 25c.

SALVATION ARMY EVENT.

Brigadier Alexander Damon and Other Prominent Workers Coming.

The local Salvation Army Corps and those interested in its splendid work in Wilmington are much interested in the illustrated lecture that will be given in the barracks here tomorrow night by Brigadier Alexander M. Damon, one of the first officers in the service.

The subject of the address will be "In Darkest America," and will be illustrated with 100 stereopticon views.

Brigadier Damon held several very important offices in the Army and is at present provincial commander of the Atlantic coast province comprising Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware Virginia and North Carolina, with headquarters at Philadelphia. He is a very able platform orator and a man of great executive ability. He is also a social reformer of prominence having rendered a distinct service in the great coal strike. The Army under his leadership met the needs of the families of the strikers and were commended by the press for the very timely aid given.

The Brigadier will be accompanied to Wilmington from Charlotte by his wife, Major Barter and Adjutant Hattie Core. While in Charlotte the officers were entertained at the home of Mayor McNinch.

Howard, for $100 and other considerations, property on east side of Seventh, 66 feet south of Wooster street, 41x55 feet in size.

CUTTER BACK IN PORT.

Officers and Men Continue to Lead The "Strenuous Life."

The United States Revenue Cutter Seminole returned to port yesterday after a cruise of several days north as far as Hatteras. She went first to the assistance of the schooner John I. Snow, ashore near Portsmouth Life Saving Station, and upon reaching Southport Saturday afternoon had hardly time to drop anchor before a hurry call reached Capt. Quinan to proceed at once the assistance of the Clyde Line steamer Comanche and the barquentine Frances which were in collision off Diamond shoal light, in a dense fog Friday night. The barque was towed into Norfolk by the tug Edna V. Crew and the Comanche proceeded to New York before the cutter could be of any assistance but she was on hand in good time and would have been of assistance but for the good fortune of the barquentine in securing a chance tow earlier. One member of the crew jumped overboard when the crash came and he was lost. Both vessels were badly damaged.

The cutter will remain in port a few days unless emergency calls her out again. Both boilers are to be cleaned from her long cruise after the missing steamer Ponce holiday week. The officers and men were glad to get in port yesterday again, for their duties have been extremely arduous for some weeks. Upon his return Lieut Reinburg of the commissioned staff had the pleasant duty of receiving from the Department his official notice of promotion from third to second lieutenant in the service.

ROUGH ON THE SEABOARD.

Charlotte People Complain of the Service on This End of Line.

The Charlotte Observer is camping hot on the trail of the Seaboard Air Line. It voices expressions from its business men that the early train was stopped at Hamlet instead of running through from Wilmington for the benefit of Wilmington merchants, whom they say are by this means enabled to get their traveling men in the territory ahead of Charlotte. As to the other features of the service, the Observer says::

"If a Charlotte person were to decide to go to Wilmington for a short visit he might as well walk as to ride on the Seaboard trains. In the first place all passengers change cars at Monroe, going from or coming to Charlotte, and then change again at Hamlet. By the time one gets by Hamlet he or she is worn completely out. The trains are generally late and the stations poorly kept. The roadbed between here and Monroe is rough and dangerous. It begins to look as if things get worse after each visitation of the head officials. People curse the Southern, but they have not tried the Seaboard. If a person starts toward Charlotte on a Seaboard train he never knows when he will get in.

"Passengers who came in from down the Seaboard Sunday night had to contend with dirty cars, broken seats and doors and to occupy coaches that were either too hot or too cold. Such is life on the old Carolina Central."

Attend Anti-Saloon Convention.

Rev. Fred D. Hale, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church, will leave this morning for Raleigh, to attend the Anti-Saloon Convention of the State in that city on Thursday of this week. A chief feature of the convention will be an address by Governor Glenn. A question upon which it is stated that the convention will be divided will be a recommendation to the General Assembly to call for a State election on the question of prohibition. Senator Simmons and a number of other party leaders are reported to have advised against any such raidcal measure as this at present.

the Carter woman returned a verdict of not guilty as to the defendant. The jury in the other case reported to Judge Long about 8 o'clock that they were hopelessly divided 10 to 2, and asked to be discharged. The judge ordered that if they had not reached a verdict at 10 o'clock to give them a light lunch and hold them over till morning. Deputy Sheriff Harvey Cox was in charge of the jury and they were still holding out in the court room when the paper went to press this morning.

The grand jury failed to find true bills against William Simpson, car breaking; Perry Alderman and Ed. James, assault with a deadly weapon, and Robert Pickett, carrying a concealed weapon.

A venire of 25 talesmen were ordered summoned for service today. It is not expected that any of the capital cases will be reached until later in the week. The Snipes case may be continued for the term.

THE COAST LINE WRECK.

Dead and Injured Taken to Charleston—Fuller Particulars.

(By Associated Press.)

Charleston, S. C., Jan. 22.—Taking an open switch about three quarters of a mile south of Yemassee last night at 8:30 o'clock, vestibule No. 88, of the Atlantic Coast Line, crashed into extra freight No. 342, waiting on the siding. The passenger and freight engines, three vestibule Pullmans and several freight cars were demolished. Engineer Johnson, of the passenger train, was killed outright and the colored fireman of both engines were crushed to death. A woman and two men, passengers, were injured. Engineer Horton, of the freight train, was badly hurt. How the switch came to be left open the Atlantic Coast Line officials do not undertake to say.

Engineer Horton had run his train on to a siding near Yemassee, to await the northbound vestibule. The passenger train came on at the usual speed and taking the open switch, ran straight into the waiting freight. The two engines were completely wrecked. Engineer Horton and the injured passengers were brought to Charleston. The body of Engineer Johnson will be sent to Florence, his home.

The dead are: R. D. Johnson, engineer No. 88, Florence, S. C.; Edward Dehn, Manchester passenger, a Cuban with ticket from Havana, to New York; Edward Barnes, fireman, No. 88, Florence; Willis Johnson, fireman, freight train, Charleston; Alex Orellis Brooks, freight engineer, Charleston, S. C.; Injured: J. J. Horton, freight engineer, Charleston, S. C., serious; N. W. Beddall, West Pottsville, Pa.; Miss D. B. Simmons, Baltimore; D. Whitefield, Pullman porter; L. A. Massey, Pullman porter; W. S. Hill, Pullman porter.

Capt. C. C. Tilghman was in charge of the vestibuled train and Conductor Stuart Heinsberger in charge of the freight.

AUDIT AND FINANCE BOARD.

Only Short Session Held Last Night—Front Street Paving.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Board of Audit and Finance last night was very brief and no matters of general importance were considered. Chairman McQueen and Messrs. Yates and Brady were present. Bonds of E. G. Parmele for making the fill on Dickinson street and Carolina Cut Stone Co., for laying the tiling and coping around the Harnett monument were submitted and approved.

A communication from City Clerk and Treasurer Fowler asking that the Board grant him an assistant in the office for a month or two longer was read, the appropriation for the three months service of Mr. F. T. Skipper expiring on the first of February. The matter was deferred for further information. The Board was of the opinion that the garnishees for poll tax in which an assistant is principally required, should be undertaken earlier in the year.

The minutes of the last meeting were amended as to the Board's agreement as to the paving of Front street, it being specificially stated that the property owners should pay their prorata share of the cost of the improvement as the work progresses. After auditing the usual bills for current expenses the Board adjourned.

FUNERAL OF MR. J. W. BRANCH.

Impressive Services Yesterday Afternoon—Interment in Oakdale.

In the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives, impressive funeral services were conducted at 4 o'clock over the remains of the late Jordan W. Branch, whose death occurred after a lingering illness Monday evening. The services were by Rev. Fred D. Hale, D.D., of the First Baptist church, assisted by Rev. Kenneth D. Holmes and Rev. J. S. Crowley. A large number of very handsome floral designs were laid upon the casketin testimony of the high esteem in which the venerable man was held. The interment was in Bellevue cemetery, the active pall-bearrs having been grandsons of the deceased as follows Messrs. Frank Branch, A. W. Smith, Gus. M. Lindquist, D. M. Branch, Thad Grotgen and Alfred Linquist. The honorary pall-bearers were Capt. W. P. Oldham, Dr. Wright Hall, Capt. R. C. Orrell, Messrs Peterson, W. H. Chadbourn and M. C. Benson.

The Navy Department was advised yesterday of the death on Sunday January 20th, on board the United States ship Charleston, at Magdalena Bay, of Midshipman Isaac W. Hayne. Midshipman Hayne was appointed to the Naval Academy from the Fourth South Carolina district on June 8, 1901, and was detached from the academy on January 30th 7905 and assigned to the Kearsarge. He later served on the Lancaster and the Franklin and from the latter ship was assigned to the Charleston.

WOULDN'T VOTE FOR TILLMAN.

One Member in South Carolina Legislature Against Senator.

Columbia, S. C., Jan. 22.—Ballots were taken today in the Senate and House of Representatives for B. R. Tillman for United States Senator.

The Senate voted solidly for Senator Tillman's re-election, while in the House one member, Rev. Coke D. Mann, of Oconee county, declined to vote. Mr. Mann stated as his reason that Tillman had never explained satisfactorily his alleged connection with the Hubbel rebates and further that he charged the prohibitionists with aligning themselves with the bar room element, against the State dispensary. Mr. Mann asked that his objections be printed in the journal. Tillman's election will be confirmed in joint assembly tomorrow.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Gov. Glenn was one of the speakers at a Y. M. C. A. banquet at Charlotte Tuesday night.

—Walter Hedgepeth who on Saturday stabbed young Church to death at High Point and escaped, was captured at Kenersville on Tuesday. His brother, Will Hedgepeth, was arrested at Greensboro. Church was a native of New York.

—Raleigh, Jan. 21: A fine of $50 was imposed upon the Southern Railway here for its failure to provide automatic gates at the railway crossings in the city. While other places all over the country have had such gates for a great many years, Raleigh has not had them until within a few months past, when the Seaboard put them up, but the Southern has never made any provisions of the kind. The latter road appeals from the fine.

—Elizabeth City, Jan. 21.—In the Superior Court in the case of Berry against J. C. Spence, register of deeds, a judgment in the sum of $200 was rendered by the jury today against Mr. Spence. The suit grew out of the issuing of a marriage license for Berry's daughter, over a year ago. She was under 18 years old and Mr. Berry sued to recover the penalty, saying that Mr. Spence did not exercise the legal degree of caution required by law. Probably the case will be appealed to the Supreme Court.

—Raleigh, Jan., 21.—Before Judge Purnell there was a hearing in 22 suits against the Cape Fear Power Company, which owns the Buckhorn Falls Electric Power Plant on the Cape Fear river, these being for alleged damages by the overflow of land by back water, due to the great dam of that company. The plaintiffs were represented by J. A. Long and T. M. Argo, who made a motion to remand the suits to the State courts. This motion was resisted by Womack & Hayes, James E. Shepherd and R. T. Gray. The motion was denied.

—Kinston, Jan., 21.—Fire in the Pridgen building this afternoon did about $4.000 damage to the building and the stock of goods in it. The fire was discovered on the second floor in a room used for storage. It probably caught from burning soot from another chimney dropping down the flue. The contents of the storage room was entirely burned and considerable damage was done to the building and the telephone exchange in the next suite of rooms. The stock of Denmark, the jeweler, was damaged by removal and water. All loss is fully covered vy insurance.

—Charlotte Observer, Jan., 22.—The contract for the hydraulic machinery to be used in the equipment of the Ninety-Nine Islands station, near Gaffney, S. C., has been let by the Southern Power Company to the Allis-Chalmers Company, of Milwaukee, Wis. The amount involved will approximate $125,000. Deliveries are to be made in six,, seven, eight and twelve months. The contract for the water wheels for the Rocky Creek station near Great Falls, S. C., will be announced in a few days. The amount of the two contracts will figure somewhere near $300,000. The announcement has been made officially that no more big contracts for power against the Great Falls station will be made. With the exception of a few thousand horse power which is being reserved for small customers, the entire output has already been sold. Prospective customers will now have to wait until either the Ninety-Nine Islands or the Rocky Creek station is completed.

OVERCOAT DUTY.

You owe yourself an Overcoat that's right—the Overcoat that's right owes you proper protection and wear.

But you will not find "right kind" of Overcoat every where; you'll certainly not find it if you shop at random.

If you patronize most any kind of a clothing store most anywhere.

If you jump at the first reduced price advertisement.

If you rush into a store and rush out, buying the first coat shown you.

To procure that "right kind" of Overcoat you must go to the right store—the kind of a store that confines its advertising to facts and invites investigation and compa rison.

If you will consider these points we believe that you will leave your Overcoat money here

Our Overcoat price range is from $10.00 to $25.00 and your money goes back if the coat goes wron g—but it won't.

Why Be Sick?

Ladies, do you suffer from headache, backache, sideache, waist-pains, irregular habit, weakness, nervousness, irritability, general miserableness and lack of ambition? If so, much of your pain and suffering is needless, for it is due to diseases peculiar to your sex, which can be cured by proper treatment. For over 50 years has been benefiting these diseases in the persons of over a million women, of whom Mrs. W. H. Gage, of 232 N. Clark St., Chicago, is one. She writes: "I was taken sick three years ago and was in bed six months. Since then I have been troubled with headache, backache, leg-ache and awful bearing-down pains. I could get no relief until I began to take Wine of Cardui. I have now been taking it about six weeks and I feel like a new woman. My friends hardly know me." Try it for your trouble.

IT'S IN THE DRAFT.

The secret of the fuel-saving qualities of this Buck's hot blast heater lies in the draft construction. It is so made as to allow large quantities of heated air to pass over the upper surface of the burning coal, thus supplying oxygen to the rising gasses, which are then converted into heating power.

Simple, isn't it? And yet it's new principle in stove building—not to be found elsewhere.

This stove will reduce your coal bill nearly one-third.

Let us tell your of its many advantages.

THE COTTON MARKET.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, Jan. 22.—Trading in cotton was very quiet during today's session and prices showed comparatively little change with the close steady at a net advance of 2 to 4 points. Sales were estimated at 75,000 bales. The opening was steady at an advance of 1 to 2 points in response to somewhat steady Liverpool cables than expected, and during the early session the market worked up to a net advance of 6 to 8 points on little buying by Liverpool and local support, encouraged by a smaller estimate for tomorrow's receipts at Houston, and the absence of aggressive bear pressure preceeding the publication of the census report tomorrow. The advance was checked around 9.48 for March by realizing and southern selling, accompanied by the large estimate for tomorrow's receipts at New Orleans, and some rather bearish items as to spot conditions from that source in connection with reports that railroad stations were crowded with cotton in northwest Texas. Prices sagged off from the best, but no actual weakness developed, and trading was very dull in the late session. Private estimates of the amount of cotton ginned to January 16 range from about 12,074,000 to 12,150,000 bales. The official report on ginning will be published at 2 o'clock tomorrow. Exports were very heavy again today, and interior stock showed a considerable loss for the halt week.

Receipts of cotton at the ports today were 64,913 bales, against 63,607 last week, and 25,303 last year. For the week, 300,000 bales, against 348,731 last week and 111,502 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 19,119 bales, against 10,538 last year, and at Houston 16,207, against 9,375 last year.

JAMAICA PEOPLE ARE INCENSED

Movement on Foot to Ask British Government to Recall Gov. Swettenham

HIS REBUFF TO AMERICANS

Only Small Minority Justify Governor's Treatment of Admiral Davis—British Government Apologizes for His Conduct.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

Kingston, Jamaica, Monday, Jan. 21.—The publication today in the Daily Telegraph of Governor Sweteenham's letter to Rear Admiral Davis has greatly intensified the resentment of the residents against the governor for rebuffing the tenders of American assistance and there is a movement on foot here to demand the recall of the governor.

A small minority, mostly officials, support Governor Swettenham, and their views were voiced today by the Rev. Mr. Graham, pastor of the Methodist church, who declares that the governor was justified in resenting the landing of Americans. "This is a British colony, not Cuba or a Spanish-American republic," he said.

The correspondent of the Associated Press sought Governor Swettenham today and spoke to him of the Davis incident. The Governor said that he had not invited Rear Admiral Davis to land sailors. Asked if he indorsed the action taken by Rear Admiral Davis, the governor replied: "That is a matter between myself and Rear Admiral Davis, to whom I must refer you."

The Governor said that his reference in his letter to Rear Admiral Davis to a tramp pillaging the house of a New York millionaire was merely a jocular parallel.

A meeting of the relief committee was held here today on the call of the Governor to discover the precise conditions attending the difference between the governor and the admiral. At the close of this meeting, and after having read Governor Swettenham's letter to Rear Admiral Davis, the Most Reverend Doctor Enos Nuttall, Archbishop of Jamaica, said that if he found the conditions warranted, he would send a personal explanatory cablegram to President Roosevelt.

British Government Apologizes.

Washington, Jan. 22.—An expression of gratitude from Governor Swettenham, of Jamaica, for the sympathy and aid extended by the United States to the victims of the disaster on that island, has been received at the State Department. The text of a graceful note from Esme Howard, the British charge here, was also made public today. In his letter Mr. Howard takes occasion to inform this government that His Majesty's government is causing official inquiries to be made as to the authenticity of the letter credited to Governor Swettenham. Governor Swettenham's cablegram reads as follows:

"Jamaica, Jan 20.

"The Hon. Elihu Root, State Secretary, Washington:

"Jamaica profoundly grateful to your excellency for expression of sympathy and for the very practical aid so kindly given by Admiral Davis and the entire particular service squadron of the United States navy.

(Signed) "GOVERNOR."

The text of the note delivered to Acting Secretary Bacon by the British charge of embassy, is as follows:

"British Embassy, Washington, Jan. 21, 1907.

"Sir: I have the honor to inform you, under instructions received today from His Majesty's principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs that His Majesty's government is causing official inquiries to be made as to the authenticity of a letter which appeared in the public press this morning and purporting to be written by the Governor of Jamaica and addressed to Admiral Davis, commanding the United States squadron lately in Jamaica waters.

"Sir Edward Gray desires me to say that while he is so far dependent upon the press only for information in regard to this letter, he deeply regrets, if the published text proves correct, that a British official should have addressed such a letter to the gallant admiral, who had rendered valuable assistance to British subjects at a time of great suffering and distress, and that he is certain that his feeling of regret is shared by every one in Great Britain.

"I have the honor to be with the highest consideration,

"Your most obedient, humble servant,

"Signed) EHME HOWARD."

An interesting chapter was added to the case today when it became known that on January 20, Admiral Davis and his ships had sailed from Kingston. Brigadier General Wint, commanding the army of pacification in Cuba on the request of the acting British Minister at Havana, transmitted through Governor Magoon, has sent 5 large hospital tents, 8 well steer and 52 conical wall tents, all complete. These had been reported by the British authorities as urgently required. Secretary Taft was prompt to give his approval upon his arrival here yesterday from South Carolina and it is understood the tents are now on their way to Kingston.

Vice Consul Irrett reported another shock today. In response to specific inquiries from the Department he cabled that Messrs. Sperry, Bourke, Watson and wife, Mrs. Case, Josh H., and Mary Eustace, Edwards and daughters, and Taylor were all alive

Through the wireless telegraph station at Keywest Admiral Evans reports the arrival at Guantanamo today of the supply ship Celtic. The vessel left Kingston Sunday upon the arrival at that point of the British cruiser Indefatigable

AUTOMOBILE RACE AT DAYTONA.

Three Five-Mile Events Run, But No Records Broken.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Ormond, Fla., Jan. 22.—Three five-mile events for cars all weights and powers, amile event for the American championship for touring cars fully equipped, and a touring car test, marked the opening of the fifth annual Ormond-Daytona international automobile tournament this morning.

The steam cars had a run away match of it, easily distancing the single real competitor, they had. Not being pushed to the limit, the drivers did not let their cars out fully, and no records were broken. The car that established the five-mile records last year at 2:47 2-5 today was 3:44 4-5 making the distance.

The match race between a steam car entered as 30-horse power and a gasoline car entered at the same time proved a runaway for the steamer. The American championship for touring cars fully equipped was won by Durbin, in a 20-horse power steam car, in 53 2-5 seconds.

A quarter-mile slow race, run high speed gear, was captured by Adriance. Time, one minute, 13 seconds.

A mile event for touring cars, carrying passengers was won by Ralph Owen in a 35-horse power gasoline car. Time, one minute, 37 2-5 seconds, with three passengers up.

SENATOR BAILEY RE-ELECTED.

Texas Legislature Only Gave Him One Vote Over Required Number

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Austin, Texas, Jan., 22.—Joseph W. Bailey was today re-elected United States Senator by a vote in the two branches of the State Legislature of 108 to 45. In the Senate the vote was 19 in favor of Senator Bailey and 10 against; in the lower house it was 89 to 35.

The vote in opposition to Senator Bailey was scattering. It was cast for Cecil Dion, the Republican nominee; Governor T. M. Campbell, former Representative W. A. Terrell and others. In the House seven members did not vote and two were absent. The vote necessary to an election was 107. Today's result was one above the required number. The two houses will meet in joint session tomorrow and canvass the vote.

The opponents of Senator Bailey made an effort in the House to pass a resolution providing that should the Legislature vote unanimously for the election of Senator Bailey the latter should submit to a special primary within thirty days and that should the result be adverse, he would resign. This proposition was voted down, 59 to 51. The special investigation committee of the Legislature is tonight considering the charges against Senator Bailey.

Interchangeable mileage on all railroads east of the Mississippi river and South of the Ohio and Potomac will be put on sale February 1st. The rate will be 2 1-2 cents. This agreement was reached at a conference of the Southeastern Passenger Association in Atlanta yesterday.

The Alabama Legislature in joint session yesterday re-elected Senators John T. Morgan and Edmund W. Pettus, for another term. There was no opposition, and they received the unanimous vote of both houses.

Pazo Ointment is guaranteed to cure any case of Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days or money refunded. 50c.

FORAKER WON ON HIS SUBSTITUTE

Shooting up of Brownsville Threshed Over in Senate Again Yesterday.

THREE NEW SUBSTITUTES

All Were Voted Down and Foraker's Substitute Was Adopted—Senators Tillman and Teller Voted Withe the epublicans

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Washington, Jan. 22.—The Senate today passed the compromise Foraker resolution authorizing the committee on military affairs to investigate the facts of the affray at Brownsville, Tex., the nights of August 13 and 14 last, "without questioning the legality or justice of any act of the President in relation" to or connected with that affray.

This action came after the subject of the President's discharge of the negro troops had been under consideration almost daily since the first day of the present session of Congress, and every phase of the question had been discussed on all sides. Before the adoption of the resolution several substitute measures were voted down. One by Senator Mallory, declaring that the President had authority for his course and acted justly, was tabled by a vote of 43 to 22. Another by Senator McCumber, simply providing for an investigation, without reference to the President in any manner was table by a viva voce vote. The third by Senator Culberson, simply indorsing the President's action and providing for no investigation, was tabled by a roll call vote of 46 to 19. There was no record vote on the resolution adopted.

When the Brownsville resolution was laid before the Senate, Mr. Mallory, of Florida, discussed the legal questions involved in the President's discharge of the negro troops.

Mr. Mallory, of Florida, offered a substitute for the compromise Brownsville resolution presented yesterday by Mr. Foraker. The resolution of Mr. Mallory provided for an investigation after resolving as follows:

"That, in the judgment of the Senate, the recent action of the President in discharging without honor enlisted men of companies B, C, and D, of the 25th Infantry was within proper exercise thereof."

Mr. Mallory said he could not support the Foraker resolution because its language as to the President's power was equivocal.

Senator Teller opposed the idea advanced in a recent speech by Senator Lodge that the President "inherited" power from the King. This was a new doctrine, and the Colorado Senator said he could see how it might become popular in some localities.

Senator Bacon, of Georgia, supported the Mallory substitute. He characterized the agreement among the Republicans on the Foraker resolution as an illustration of their extreme dexterity in forming measures for which they can all vote, although some of them are directly opposed in sentiment, as in the matter to which that resolution relates."

The Foraker resolution, he declared, to be equivocal and ambiguous. When Mr. Bacon remarked that if the President was content with a compromise in such language on which those who opposed and supported him could unite, Mr. Aldrich asked: "Did I understand the Senator to say that the question whether the President is content with the resolution is the main question?"

Mr. Bacon replied that he thought and said what the President might think was far from the important feature "and" he added, "I think the Senator from Rhode Island had but one purpose in his question, and that was for me to emphasize what I had said to the contrary."

Replying to Mr. Bacon's argument, Mr. Foraker reviewed the history of the Brownsville controversy in the Senate to show that the question of the President's power had been raised by the message which the President had sent to the Senate on December 17 last. Mr. Foraker maintained that from the beginning all he had contended for was the facts.

Mr. Bacon said in reply that while he was far from being an advocate of the President, yet he believed the language proposed in the Foraker resolution was an injustice to the President.

Mr. Bacon wanted an opportunity to vote directly on the question whether the President had the legal power to discharge the negro troops, and on the question of tabling the resolution. He spoke of the affray at Brownsville as "an unspeakable outrage."

A roll call was taken on Mr. Foraker's motion to lay the Mallory substitute on the table. This action prevailed, 43 to 22. Messrs. McCumber Warner and LaFollette voted with the Democrats, and Messrs. Teller and Tillman with the Republicans.

Mr. Stone took occasion to review Senator Tillman's "attempt at humor" yesterday. He said he had taken no offense at the reference to himself in Mr. Tillman's characterization of the Senate as a "minstrel troupe," and was sorry the Senator from Tennessee (Mr. Carmack) and the Senate had eliminated it from the record. He was opposed to having the record "a tomb for platitudes," and he hoped Senator Tillman would reconsider his resolution "not to do so again, but would "soften his tone" and make many future attempts.

Senator Culberson proposed a substitute which provided for no investigation, but simply resolved that the President was authorized by law and justified by the facts in dismissing the negro troops. Explaining the need for the resolution, he said the whole question was not in the hands of Senators who opposed or denied the right or authority of the position of President. The Culberson substitute was tabled by a vote of 46 to 19.

A vote on the Foraker resolution was then taken, and without a roll call the resolution was declared adopted.

The resolution was referred to the committee to audit and control the contingent expenses of the Senate, in order to submit authority for the expenditures of the inquiry, whereupon Mr. Kean, chairman of that committee, immediately announced he had been authorized by that committee to make a favorable report on the resolution and this report was agreed to.

This action concluded the subject preliminary to the investigation authorized.

FLORIDA BANK DYNAMITED.

Four Robbers Captured With $4,000 After Desperate Fight with Posse.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Greenscove Springs, Fla., Jan. 22.—A safe in the bank here was dynamited at 2 o'clock this morning and robbed of $1,500 or $1,800. The force of the explosion shattered the glass front of the building. Several persons heard two distinct explosions, but did not go out to investigate. At 5 o'clock a passing baker noticed the wrecked glass front and gave the alarm.

Sheriff Weeks and posse pursued the robbers and during the morning came upon four white men asleep near the road eight miles south of here. As the posse approached the men awoke and at once began firing at the sheriff's posse. They returned the fire, fatally wounding one of the robbers, the bullet passing through his head. After a desperate struggle, the other three were overpowered and are now in jail. It is thought the wounded man will die before morning. None of the sheriff's posse was injured. When the prisoners were searched, between $3,000 and $4,000 was found in their pockets.

Senator Sutherland of Utah, occupied the first three hours of the session of the Senate yesterday in delivering his first speech in that body. It was on behalf of the right of Reed Smoot of his own State, to a seat in the Senate.
